

June 20, 2011

For Immediate Release

KgM Attorney Presents to the Alabama Hospital Association on Compliance Matters

Kaufman Gilpin McKenzie Thomas Weiss, PC in Montgomery, Alabama sponsored a session on regulatory compliance recently at the Alabama Hospital Association annual meeting in Miramar Beach, Florida. The presentation, entitled Compliance Update, Compliance Matters Hidden in Recent Health Reform, was presented by John Ward Weiss, leader of the firm's health care practice group. Mr. Weiss noted that while everyone is focused on health exchanges, and accountable care organizations, recent health care reform acts contain a number of program integrity matters that impact hospitals now. The presentation reviewed primary compliance provisions in the PPACA and HITECH acts at the heart of last years Health Reform debate. Mr. Weiss is a frequent speaker at the annual meeting of the Alabama Hospital Association, speaking at prior meetings on ER call coverage, EMTALA, physician recruitment, the new environment for tax-exempt hospitals, and compliance matters.